Mrs. Walter E. Storey, of Burlington, arrived in the city Tuesday night and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Thomas, for several weeks.

Mrs. Abram Levy, of Savannah, and Mrs. Vance Weil, of Goldsboro, arrived Friday morning and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. McRae, for the day. Mrs. McRae entertained with a beautifully appointed 6 o'clock dinner in their honor. After dinner three tables of bridge were enjoyed. Mrs. Levy was before her marriage, Miss Ina Weil, of this place, and a general favorite in Rockingham. Mrs. McRae's guests left on a late-night train for their respective homes.

Saturday evening, Mrs. W. B. Jones and Mrs. T. L. McRae entertained with a Victrola Dance, which was thoroughly enjoyed by those attending. Dancing was between the hours of 9 and 11 o'clock.

Mr. Alex Monroe returned Sunday from Greenville where he spent several days last week on business.

Mr. Walter L. Scales, Jr., spent the week-end in Aberdeen with friends.

Mrs. George S. Steele has been confined to her bed several days with flu.

Mrs. Matthews Foster and little daughter, Elizabeth, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Steele, expect to leave for their home in Matthews' Court House, Va., the latter part of this week.

The ladies of the Episcopal Auxiliary, church of the Messiah, Rockingham, were invited by the ladies of Wadesboro Auxiliary, to come over to their March meeting which was held at the residence of Mrs. James Hardison, Monday afternoon. Miss Esdale Shaw invited to go in her car with herself and Miss Heloise Smith, Mrs. Isaac London and Mrs. Alex. McDonald, leaving the city about 2 p. m. with James Warner driving. Mrs. Hardison and the other members of the Auxiliary plumed to show the Rockingham members a good time as well as to impress upon us what a splendid work they are doing. Mrs. John T. Bennett, president opened the meeting, and after the minutes and roll call, she asked Rev. Mr. Hamacher to conduct the Devotionals which were most impressive and beautiful. Then Mrs. Bennett lead the study of China, Missionary work being done by the church in China; this was most interesting and instructive. Papers were read by Mrs. McLendon, Mrs. Hamacher, and Mrs. John Leak.

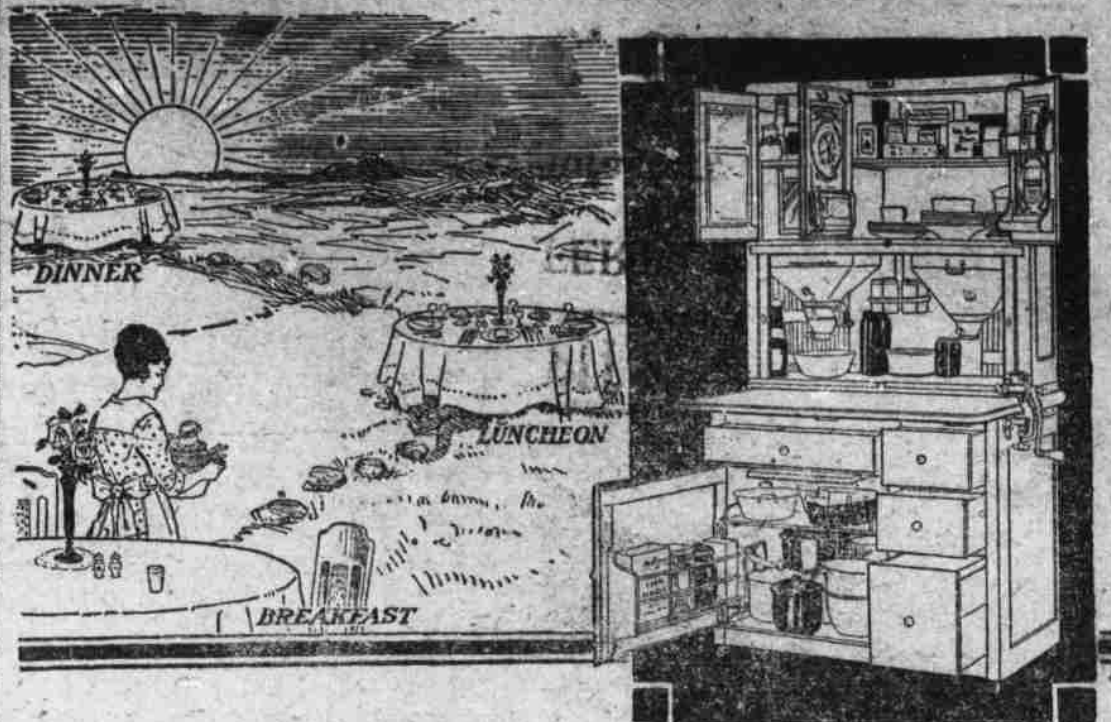

A most attractive and pretty pre-nuptial affair given in honor of a bride of this month was that on Wednesday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. R. R. Simmons, when Miss Laura Page Steele entertained in honor of Miss Mamie Nicholson West. On each of the four tables arranged for "Hearts" were souvenirs, a miniature bride, for each guest. After several progressions the game was called off and the bride-to-be was showered with two dozen handsome towels. Then the hostess presented the honoree with a handsome brocade satin vanity. Enjoying this party were: Miss Mamie West, honoree, and mother, Mrs. James West, Misses Berta West, Octavia Scales, Jamie Cole, Edith and Ophelia Ormond, Mary Entwistle, Elizabeth and Catherine Cole, Anna Leak, Ledbetter, Marie and Tessie Covington, Lucile Shore, Addie Webb, Mesdames Harvey Terry, Marshall French Minor Hinson, S. W. Steele, R. R. Simmons, R. L. Steele Jr. The hostess served a course of congealed fruit salad, cheese sandwiches, pickles, crackers and ice tea.

Miss Kathryn McDonald is spending several days in Florence with relatives and friends.

Mrs. R. R. Simmons invited to spend the past week-end as her guest Miss Elma Warburton.

HOOSIER Helps You

From Morning to Night

The HOOSIER is the one thing you can buy which will help you all day long every day in the year.

Other conveniences are in a sense luxuries—you can only enjoy them once in a while. But the HOOSIER is a modern necessity. It helps you six times every day—before and after each meal—and frequently at other times, besides.

You can't afford to do without the HOOSIER—and our liberal Club Terms make it easy for you to own one.
